Do you recognise this youthful
'MAN OF ALL MUSIC'?

Welcome

Welcome to the New Year..... & a new price - you DID remember we were having to put it up didn't you?

A feast of entertainment for you tonight with the long awaited visit by Daniel Smith and T-bone Taylor - need we say more. Joining them are Vital Spark singing West Gallery, Glen a master of slide guitar, Richard a master of flamenco guitar, and Ken a master of the word.

It can't get any better next month, but nor does it get any worse. We have the long awaited return of SAM - remember that gutsy, bluesy singer and her band that surprised us all? Also on the floor will be Day Level, the close harmony duo always popular here, and Jackson Jones, a newcomer but sure to make an impression on our ever appreciative audience.

First Floor CDs still available at the remarkable price of £5 for 19 tracks! A HUGE THANK YOU goes to Paul & Jack Brett who collect & collate the sounds of The Floor, and to Mick Wood, who works his magic to produce the final sound.

A big thank you also to Simon on sound for all his help - he is off to the sunnier climes of Australia shortly. Smart lad that. Henry will miss him as we all will.

Whatever else you do, spread the word—live music is mighty in St Michaels.

....& NOW ON WITH THE SHOW!!

This seems a very appropriate little item at the moment -

A LOVE LETTER

I shall seek and find you.
I shall take you to bed and control you.
I will make you ache, shake, and sweat until you grunt and groan.
I will make you beg for mercy.
I will exhaust you to the point that you will be relieved when I leave.
You will be weak for days.
All my love,
The Flu

How do you tell the difference between a violinist and a dog?

The dog knows when to stop scratching.

What's the difference between a fiddle and a violin?

No one minds if you spill beer on a fiddle.

Sorry - haven't got any banjo jokes!!!

Famous Last Words from Liverpool Ken

Ramon Maria Narvaez (Spanish Prime Minister - died 1868) when asked by a priest whether he forgave his enemies

'I do not have to forgive them. I had them all shot.'

James French - executed by electric chair 1966

'How's this for a headline for tomorrow's paper - "French Fries"?'

John Philpot Curran (Irish writer and wit, died 1817) replying to his doctor who commented, 'You are coughing with more difficulty.'

'That is surprising, since I have been practising all night.'

Lord Palmerston (British Prime Minister, died 1865) upon being told by his doctor that he was going to die.

'Die, my dear doctor? That is the last thing I shall do.'

Henry Fox (first Baron Holland, died 1774)

'If Mr Selwyn calls again, show him up. If I am alive I shall be delighted to see him, and if I am dead, he would like to see me.'

Nancy Astor (British politician, died 1964) upon waking on her deathbed to find herself surrounded by her family

'Am I dying? Or is this my birthday?'

George Appel (executed by electric chair 1928)

'Well gentlemen, you are about to see baked Appel.'

And a few that some people might have used if they had thought of them

Oh, life jackets are for wimps...

It's only a rash ...

No problem, I'll just explain to this escaped murderer that he's made a mistake ...

I don't care; they can do what they like ...

The odds of that happening are a million to one ...

Don't try to scare me; you don't even know how to use that thing ...

Watch this ...

You've got some grenades left? OK, throw one across ...

I'll jump down this hole to see how deep it is ...

I never get lost. I've got a wonderful sense of direction ...

That's odd ...

I've seen them do this on TV ...
